Automatic tyre maufacture

1505. SHRI SHANTI TYAGI: Will the Minister of INDUSTRY be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that an organisation now known as 'All India Motor Transport Congress' and the large number of tyre dealers in the country have recently made representations to Government charging the Automatic Tyre Manufacturers of artificially manipulating high prices and organising production and distribution in a way which brings them more profits; and

(b) if so, what is the reaction of Government thereto?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) In absence of control on prices of raw materials and conversion costs and in the prevailing competitive market conditions, where the installed capacity is in excess of what the market can sustain, Government do not consider it necessary to intervene in the prices/distribution of tyres. However, Government constantly reviews measures required to stabilise the prices of raw materials and other inputs as well as the incidence of indirect taxes so as to enable the tyre
